

Mary Briggs, APR, CPRC

Mary Briggs is the System Director for Media Relations at Lee Memorial Health System. She has been a member of FPRA for more than 25 years, and holds both the APR and CPRC credentials. She served as chapter president in 1992 and held several posts on the Executive Committee of the FPRA State Board of Directors. During the course of her career, Mary has worked in health care, real estate development, shopping mall management and co-owned a public relations and advertising firm. She has earned many awards for her public relations programs over the years, but is most proud of being part of the team who received the All Florida Golden Image Award in 2002.
