

ABOUT BREANNE WINTER

Breanne Winter is the CEO & Training Specialist at Speak Up Consulting & Coaching, a professional skills training company. Breanne has taught, tutored and trained hundreds of individuals in public speaking, professional presence and cultivating business skills.

She holds a bachelor's and master's in communication, along with certifications in Neuro-Linguistic programming and guest services, and has even volunteered to be the National Anthem soloist over 600 times. She helps her clients achieve optimum performance!

About Speak Up Consulting & Coaching

Speak Up Consulting & Coaching is a comprehensive business skills training company that provides workshops, in-depth programs, and individual coaching, as well as consulting and facilitation services for companies looking to enhance their employees' toolbox for success. Speak Up Consulting & Coaching focuses on the development of people to enhance lives, careers and companies.

For more information visit www.speakupcc.com