

ABOUT APRIL DONAHUE

Since May 2013, April Donahue has been the Executive Director of the Collier County Medical Society in Naples, FL, a 501c6 membership association for over 700 physicians, and its 501c3 Foundation. Born in Indiana and a DePauw University graduate in Religions and Anthropology, April's work experience also includes the Hawaii Medical Association, the Collier County Supervisor of Elections office and Sunrise Greetings/Hallmark Cards.

Ms. Donahue is on the board of directors for the American Association of Medical Society Executives (AAMSE) and is a past chair of the Conference of Florida Medical Society Executives. She also serves as a board member for the Physician Led Access Network of Collier County, and a committee member with the Leadership Collier Foundation and Leadership Florida. Ms. Donahue is a graduate of Leadership Florida, Leadership Collier, and the Physicians Foundation Leadership Academy. She has been recognized as one of Naples Illustrated's "Naples 100" top business leaders, was awarded the 2019 AAMSE President's Award and Advocacy Award, has been a Leadership Collier Foundation Volunteer of the Year, and was named one of Gulfshore Business magazine's Southwest Florida "40 under 40".