

ABOUT DAVID CINTRON

David Cintron has more than 22 years as a professional multimedia producer. He has worked as a Director, Online / Offline Editor, Director of Photography, Audio Field Operator, Grip, motion graphic designer, graphic design for both print and web, and production assistant. He has produced feature films, shorts, music videos, and commercials both locally and nationally. Growing up in Florida, and spending much of his time on studio sets around southwest Florida he became enamored early on with the magic of filmmaking.

Back in 2004, he was one of three cameramen on the show “On Course”, a local TV golf show that was rated number two on Wink TV, and immediately began working on production and graphic design for commercials, corporate videos, web episodes, music videos, and more.

Realizing he could never afford the kind of visual effects he desired for his projects, he took to learning industry-standard software such as Final Cut Pro and the Adobe product line. Building his skills he has moved to bigger projects working with stars such as Hulk Hogan, Mike Ditka, David Ortiz, and became the chief editor for an Internet company called Loyal TV, and also producing webisodes working alongside companies like Harley Davidson, he has also worked on training videos for the automotive industry, working closely with companies like Bosch, Delphi, Pronto, Advanced Auto Parts, and Co-produces, DP, edits, the Internet TV show Taste Of Music.

He is now the lead multimedia producer for M&M Multimedia.
