

ABOUT EMILY GOLDEN

Emily Golden is the public relations manager for Priority Marketing. She is responsible for managing the company's award-winning, strategic media relations services and supporting publicity strategies, campaigns, projects and events for a diverse client base, including nonprofits, small start-ups and large businesses.

A Fort Myers native, Golden earned her bachelor's degree from Florida Gulf Coast University in Communication with a concentration in Public Relations.